

John Koury — Biography

John Koury holds a Master's Degree in Business from Royal Roads University and is an accredited Chartered Director in corporate governance through The Directors College at McMaster University's DeGroote School of Business and the Conference Board of Canada.

A business consultant, John brings more than 30 years of senior executive management and corporate board experience. He served two consecutive terms on North Cowichan Council, including six years as Chair of the Economic Development Committee and on the Forest Advisory Committee. He also served as corporate Secretary of the Canadian Society of Immigration Consultants, regulating Canadian immigration consultants globally.

Prior to owning sport retail franchises in Victoria and Nanaimo, John was General Manager of Logistics Operations for the Forzani Group Ltd. in Calgary and served on its corporate advisory board.

For more than 30 years, John has been actively involved in public and community service. He was a federal Candidate of Record in 2004 and 2011 and a provincial candidate in Cowichan Valley in 2024. He has also worked in Parliament at the House of Commons.

John and his wife, Nora, have been married for over 40 years. They raised their two sons in North Cowichan and now live in Lake Cowichan.